"When you are new to the industry, that a to other people doing similar things is so important to build that network and to fir and collaborate. That's the best thing about SWANA, it's the relationships."

Karen Storry

Metro Vancouver SW Services

"It's the relationships from the time I started at the local level in North Carolina and also at the national level. It's helped me connect with people across the states and Canada."

Michael Brinchek Smith Gardner, Inc.

What Does SWANA Provide?

With a growing network of over 10,000 members in 47 chapters throughout the United States and Canada, the Solid Waste Association of North America (SWANA) is the go-to source for the most up-to-date information for professionals in the solid waste and recycling industry.

CONNECT TO OTHER PROFESSIONALS on industry specialties, local events, policy changes, best practices, and much more.

- SWANA Chapters—Chapters provide local networking opportunities, have their own newsletters, websites, host local tours and events, provide training opportunities, and advise local officials on behalf of the profession.
- Technical Divisions—TDs bring together some of the best minds in seven different fields of solid waste management, each with their own educational opportunities, events, and newsletters for up-to-date information in your specialty.
- Members-Only Private Social Network, MySWANA —Includes discussion forums, online membership directory, and online networking communities.
- Conferences—SWANA's Road to Zero Waste, Landfill Symposium, Landfill Gas and Biogas Symposium and other affiliate industry organizations programs are collectively known as SWANApalooza, held in the spring. WASTECON®, held annually in the fall, is the only solid waste conference that is run by and for solid waste professionals, bringing thousands of members together for technical sessions, training, and networking opportunities.

UTILIZE KEY RESOURCES for more efficient operations, innovative ideas, Professional service directory, and enhanced communications.
